LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

The Democratic Cancus Selects the Winning Names.

The Work of the Committee on the Investigation of the State Treasurer.

The Senate Committee on Phraseology has been given a clerk.

The bill prohibiting ball playing on Sunday passed yesterday. Bills on a third reading was the order for vesterday in the House. The second reading of bills was the order yesterday in the Senate. Senator Brown introduced a bill yesterday confirming the existing Congressional Dis-

Judge Browning, the member from Brown, is indulging himself in the pleasures of housekeeping. Lieutenant Governor Manson opened yesterday morning's session of the Senate by quoting the 133d Paslm. Senator Paterson has offered a bill authorizing the formation of companies for the apprehension of horse thieves.

Merriam & Co., through Representative Smith, of Tippecanoe, have presented the House with a copy of Webster's Unabridged

Senator Faulkner succeeded in getting through his resolution appointing George A. Russ, son of the former Adjutant General Russ, Senate page. The bill giving in-keepers and others engaged in similar occupations a lien on the baggage of their guests, was voted down in the House yesterday by a vote of 83 to 19. The bill providing for the Clerk of the Supreme Court to keep a record of all fees received by him, the time of their receipt, from whom and for what, was passed unanimonely. The committee appointed by Speaker

Jewett to investigate the affairs at Knightstown is composed of the following members: Loyd, of Ripley; Smith, of Warrick; Boyd, of Hamilton. The Senate Committee on City and Town-

Liquor bill recommending that it apply only to cities having a voting population of 5,000, which includes Indianapolis, Evansville, Firt Wayne and Terre risute. The bill appropriating $40,000 for Purdue University passed the House yesterday by a vote of 73 to 18. The discussion of the merits of the bill was quite animating, Smith, of Tippecanoe, Williams of Knox. and Harrell, of Franklin, taking the lead.

The joint resolution of the House proposing an amendment to the Constitution making the Clerk of the Circuit Court, Auditor, Recorder, Treasurer, Sheriff, Coroner and Surveyor four year officers, and making no one eligible for a second term for a period of eight years, was carried by a vote of 80

McHenry making the office of County | tion which he now holds. The caucus then Superintendent elective by the people came to a third reading yesterday. It brought forth the greatest discussion yet, and after being bitterly fought was defeated by a vote

Representative Gordon entered a motion yesterday afternoon to reconsider the vote by which the bill prohibiting the playing of ball on Sunday passed. This objection to tae bill is that it is too broad in its provisions and it should be confined to a few specifications.

A bill was introduced in the Senate yesterday by Mr. Magee authorizing the Governor, Treasurer and Auditor of State to make a temporary loan of $600,000, bonds redeemable at the pleasure of the State within five or ten years, to bear 4 per cent. interest, and authorizing the funding of the present indebtedness of the S ate if it can be done at a lower rate of interest than at present paid. Representative McMullen presented yesterday a memorial from the Knights of Labor, of Lawrenceburg, asking for a Bureau of Labor Statistics, for arbitration between employers and employes, for laws requiring employers to pay employes weekly in lawful money, prohibiting convict and child labor, recognizing the incorporation of Trades Unions, looking to the health and safety of laborers, and providing for compulsory education. The committee appointed to investigate the alleged necessity of an investigation of the condition of the State Treasurer's office and composed of the following members: Senators Foulke, McCollough, Hilligase, Lindley and Smith. of Jennings; Representatives Sayre, Patton, Gooding, McMullen and Brownlee, met Wednesday afternoon and resolved that they would first go to the auditor's office and obtain from his books the amount of money that should be in the keeping of the State Treasurer and then call upon the Treasurer, examine the books, vouchers and safe and count the money. Yesterday morning they followed somely rendered by the choir of male voices, out the provisions of the resolution. From and was received with applause. Special the Anditor's books they discovered that | mention should also ce made of the perform there should be in the hands of Tressurer | ance of "Am Woerther See," by the mixed $486,881.04. They then went into the Treasurer's office and found in cash, cartificates of deposits, special and general, and other collateral, $491,992.94, the excess being accounted for by the presence of fees and other private money of Mr. Cooper. The certifi-cates of deposit were on the First National, Meridian National and Merchants' National Banks. A sub-com mittee was then appointed to visit the banks mentioned and see if the money certified to be there was on hands. This subcommittee was composed of Senator Hilli-Brownies. They will meet this morning at 7 o'clock and report to the principal committee Tuesday evening. So far the com-mittee is satisfied that everything in connec-tion with the Treasury is as it should be.

The Democratic cancus of the Representatives and Senators met in the hall of the House last night. Judge Gooding, of Knox. called the meeting to order. Senator Schloss was made Chairman and Representative Williams was made Secretary. The roll was called, all being present except Senator Johnson, of Tippecance, It was ordered that no speeches be allowed in meking the nominations. The following names were then placed in nomination for State Librarian: Miss Luzzie O. Callis, of Morgan, the present incumbent; Mrs. Har- fore last for lodging. Turnkey Taffe regisriet C. Cooper, of Shelby; Miss Lallie Praythez, of Clay; Miss Hettle A. Morrison, of Clinton; Judge Taylor, of Daviess, read the following communication:

The caucus proceeded to bailot, with the following result: Miss Callis, 54; Mrs. Cooper, 24: Miss Prayther, 12: Miss Morrison, 7 Total number of votes cast, 97: necessary to choice, 49. Miss Callis was thereupon declared elected, and upon motion of Senator Weir her election was made unanimous.

The following names were placed in nom-ination for the position of Prison Director South: Jasper Davidson, of Gibson; John Horn, of Floyd; George W. Ham, of Hanceck; Floyd Parks, of Clark; John Cor, of Munroe, and Colonel E. M. Benson, of Parke The first ballot resulted as follows: Davidson, 14; Horn, 48; Ham, 12; Parks, 15; Cox, 1; Benson, 6. No one baving a majority of the votes cast, the caucus proceeded to a second ballot, resulting as follows: Davidson, 15; Horn, 64; Ham, 5; Parks, 13. Mr. Horn was thereupon declared elected, and upon motion of Senator Weir his election was ... ade unanimous. Ex-Senator George Majors, of Benton, the present incumbent, and David Marks, of Wabash, were placed in nomination for Prison Director North, the balloting resulting as follows: Majors, 58; Marks, 39. The following names were placed in nomination for the position of of Trustee for the Asylum for the Insane: Marshall Pettit, of Fountain; B H. Burrell Jackson: Dr. R. H. Tariton, of Morgan be fi st ballot resulted as follows: Pettit. ii: Burrell, 44; Tarleton, 24 As the tally shown one too many votes a second ball t was taken, resplting: Pettit, 37; Barrell, 47; Tarleton, 12; Green, L. Necessary for choice, 49. No one having received the necessary vote, a third ballot was taken, resulting as follows: Pettit, 35; Barrell, 58; Tarleton, 3; whereupon Burrell was declared elected, and upon motion of Senator Davidson, of Brown, election was made unanimous. following names were placed nomination for Trustee for Asylum for Dear and Dumb: John B. Green, of Clinton: James F. Harney, of Montgomery: J. S. Con ingor, of Johnson. The ballot resulted as follows: Harney, 16; Green, 74; Comingor, 6. Green was then declared elected. The following names were presented for Trustee of Asylum for the Bilnd: Calvin Stogdill, of Decator: Dr. W. B. Wiles of Owen, the present imcumbent The ballot resulted as follows: Stogd 11, 47; Wiles 49; Scherarize 1, 1; Wilson, 1. No one being elected, a record ballot was taken, with the following result: Stogdill, 50: Wiles, 44:

Resolved, That so much of the order of bust-ness as required the selection of a candidate for Trustee of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home and Asylum for the Feeble minded Children be dis-

Resolved, That it is the sense of this caucus that a bill should be at once passed providing for the appointment by the Governor two Trustees of said institution, who, with the President of the Board of the Benevolent Institutions, shall constitute the Board of Trustees of said institution.

This caused quite a discussion, resulting in the withdrawal of the second section and and the adoption of the first. The reason for the resolution was that the affairs at Knightstown were to be investigated, and that no Trustee ought to be selected until that investigation was concluded. William A. Peelle was then nominated by acclama The bill introduced by Representative | tion for Commissioner of Statistics, the postadjourned.

PERSONAL MENTION.

John L. Dawson, formerly connected with the Sentinel but now of Chicago, called on the editorial force of this paper last night. Come again, Mr. Dawson.

fhe Lyra Concert.

The Lyra Concert last evening, at the Washington street hall, was as fine an entertainment as has yet been given by the society. The house was crowded, all available space being occupied, which testifies to the popularity of these concerts. The features were numerous, the more prominent being the orchestral overture, "Raymond, the rendition of "True Liebe," by the mixed choir, and the rendition of the music entitled: 'Protect Us Through the Coming Night," by the choir of ladies. Mrs. Barmeirer gave a splendid rendition of "Ah. Perfido." "La Concordancia" was charmingly sung by the following ladies: Nettle Dietrich, Emelie Klein, Emelie Kuhu and Anna Ab romet. "Bin ich im Walde" was handchoir and the orchestra. It would be difficult to anggest any improvement, and cer tainly the fashionable audience was well satisfied with the concert. The Lyra masquerade will occur the 12th of next month. This society will also open the armory with a performance on the 17th.

The Rinks.

The attendance at the Meridian Rink last night was good, and as an appropriate recognition of the same the manager wore a 12 by 19 smile. This clever, good-sized smile overspread Mr. Murray's countenance during the first of the evening, but after the exhibition it had narrowed down to a 1 by 2 size, and was one of those ghastly, disgusted grins that a rink manager wears when he is not in good humor. Either some awkward It llow had trod on his favorite corn, or the exhibition did not suit bim. The bicycle riding was good, and the club swinging ranks with the best, but the rest of the companywell, we'll give them another opportunity. Possibly they were out of practice.

The grand fancy dress carnival will take place this evening at the Wigwam Rink Great anticipation is felt by all lovers of this sport, and the indications are that it will be a very successful affair. Another crowded house again greeted Master Charles E. Beeson, the "Boy Won der." at the College Avenue Rink last night. His feats upon skates are simply marvelous, and he should be seen by admirers of athletic sports.

Up in Concord N. H., most of the residentare old-fashioned enough to still believe in the Bible, and use its texts to clinch all kinds of arguments, making it a guide on every moral or secial question that arises. Five years-old Fannie lives there, and is one of the many bright little girls who inhabit the Granite State. A few days ago she came to her mother with a very serious face and said:

"What are we mama?" "We? Why, we are people, of course." "No, mama," came the reproachial answer: "I don't mean that."

"Well, we are Americans, then," replied the mother, thinking she wanted to know what nationality they were. As the child was not satisfied with this reply, her mother was at a loss to know her drift.

"Do you wish to know if we are Republicans or Democrats?" ventured she, at last "Yes, yes; that's it," was the joyous ex-

"I'm sorry I can't tell you, Fannis. I don't know anything about politics." "Oh, dear, I'm so sorry," said the child. Then she appeared to be in a brown study for a moment. Suddenly her face bright ened with a new idea, like the morning with sunlight.

'I'll tell you jess how we'll find out," said she, making a dramatic gesture. 'You wa t right here while I go and get the Bible, and you can find out all about it."

A Careless Artist.

"I knew it," replied Mrs. Auger, conclusively, "all the time." "How did you learn it?"

"He is such a careless, dear, old boy that he spattered red paint all over his face and that on his nose won't wash off.

> A Fashionable Chinese Dinner. [All the Year Round.]

When "tiffin" was announced we were conducted to a luxurious dining room, and sat down to what proued an excellent but very lengthy dinner of twenty-five courses! This, however, was nothing remarkable, as a really elaborate dinner sometimes constats of forty courses and 100 dishes, and lasts for about four hours, the guests being expected to teste every dish as it is handed round. washing it down with innumerable cups of hot rice wine, and concluding with a large bowl of plain boiled rice, just to correct any previous indiscretion in the way of rich sours or incongruous mixtures!

A Brainy Story.

[Manchester Courier.] A British sailor at the battle of the Nile, at the moment when the officer of the watch said to him, "Do you make out the flagship on the port of starboard bow, Bill?" was struck by a bullet in the head. For fifteen months that sailor remained insensible, but not dead, with a ball in his skull which could not be extracted. He was taken to the Greenwich Hospital and trephined, when the foreign body was removed from the neighborhood of his brain. Then he rubbed bis eyes and said instantly: "Just off the starboard bow, sir."
